

The Chronicles of the Messiah (Mathew 13; Mark 4)

www.pastorsclass.faithweb.com

The Treasure in the Field

The Parable of the Treasure in the Field (Matthew 13:44)

The man = _____

Treasure = _____

The man's possessions = _____

The field = _____

Meaning = _____

A Parable of Jesus in the Gospel of Thomas: The Lost Inheritance

The Parable of the Lost Inheritance (Thomas 109)

The father = _____

The son = _____

Treasure = _____

The purchaser = _____

The field = _____

Plowing = _____

Meaning = _____

The Pearl

The Parable of the Pearl (Matthew 13:45-46)

The merchant = _____

The fine pearl = _____

The price of purchase = _____

Meaning = _____

Another Parable from the Gospel of Thomas: The Wise Fisherman

The Dragnet

The Parable of the Dragnet (Matthew 13:47-50)

Dragnet = _____

The lake = _____

The fisherman = _____

The kosher fish = _____

The unclean fish = _____

Throwing the bad fish away = _____

Meaning = _____

New and Old

The Parable of the New and Old (Matthew 13:51-52)

Owner of the house = _____

Old implements = _____

New implements = _____

Meaning = _____

A Parable from the Talmud and Halacha and Aggadah

The Parable of the Two Merchants (b.Sota 40a)

Merchant selling gemstones = _____

Merchant selling trinkets = _____

Gemstones = _____

Trinkets = _____

The customers = _____

Meaning = _____