TUESDAYS IN THE TORAH

www.pastorsclass.faithweb.com

Tzav (צו)

i uesday's	rate of th	ie i zaddikim

Shochet, Yes; Money, No!?

Mitzvah List: Which of the 613 Occur in This Week's Portion

See listing at end of handout

Connection: A Perpetual Fire and Prayer (including the liturgical cycle of prayer)

More on the Perpetual Fire

Substitutes for Sacrifices

The Todah Psalms

A Lesson in the Order of the Offerings

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Mussar Moments

Study vs. Action

The Inner Sacrificial Altar

Shabbat HaGadol: A Part of the Exodus Story You May Not Have Heard

Mitzvah List: Parashat Tzav

To remove the ashes from the altar. Leviticus 6:3(10)

To kindle a perpetual fire on the altar. Leviticus 6:6(13)

Not to extinguish any part of the altar fire. Leviticus 6:6(13)

To eat the remnants of the grain offerings. Leviticus 6:9(16)

Not to cook the remnants of the grain offerings with leaven. Leviticus 6:10(17)

The high priest should bring a grain offering twice daily. Leviticus 6:13(20)

Not to eat the grain offering of a priest. Leviticus 6:16(23)

To offer the sin offering according to its specifications. Leviticus 6:18(25)

Not to eat the sin offerings which require their blood to be sprinkled inside the Sanctuary. Leviticus 6:23(30)

To offer the guilt offering according to its specifications. Leviticus 7:1

To offer the peace offering according to its specifications. Leviticus 7:11

Not to allow any remnant of a thanksgiving offering to remain until after the days of its slaughter.

Leviticus 7:15

To burn the leftovers of the sacred offerings within their allotted time. Leviticus 7:17

Not to eat piggul (i.e., sacrificial meat past its allotted time and meat sacrificed by an officiating priest acting with wrong intention). Leviticus 7:18

Not to eat sacrificial meat that has contracted ritual defilement. Leviticus 7:19

To burn sacrificial meats which have contracted uncleanness. Leviticus 7:19

Not to eat any prohibited fat portions. Leviticus 7:23

Not to ingest any blood. Leviticus 7:26