

Ki Tavo “When You Come” כִּי־תָבֹא

TUESDAYS IN THE TORAH
www.pastorsclass.faithweb.com

Parashat Ki Tavo כִּי־תָבֹא

Today's Nugget

Love Your Neighbor

We are not to speak or act disrespectfully to a parent (or any proper authority)

We are not to speak behind someone's back

We are to emulate God by being merciful and compassionate

The Relationship of First Fruits (Bikkurim) and Overcoming Selfishness and Developing Gratitude

The Centrality of Gratitude in Character Refinement

Be Joyful and Be Content: Two Levels of Happiness

Simchah (joy)

Tuv levav (contentment)

The Pregnant Meaning of וַיִּרְעֵנוּ (vayorey'u)

Vayorey'u lanu vs. vayorey'u otanu

Rey'a (friend, neighbor)

Blessings in Disguise

Be Quiet, Learn, Accept and Then Analyze: The Model for True Learning and Discipleship

Haskhet (pay attention)

Has (be quiet, hush)

Khatet (to shatter)